CEV scores long-term partnership with IMG ARENA

The CEV has secured a long-term, worldwide live betting streaming and betting data rights partnership with IMG ARENA, a leading sports betting service and content hub. The deal was brokered by the international rights agency AMI on behalf of CEV, with AMI retaining all betting category sponsorship rights for all CEV events.

The deal covers Volleyball, Beach Volleyball and Snow Volleyball - the new form of the sport launched by CEV and the International Volleyball Federation (FIVB) in 2016 - allowing sports betting operators access to content across all events organised by the CEV.

This includes the CEV's blue riband Volleyball events, the biennial EuroVolley, which is contested by 24 national teams, and Champions League, the top competition for the continent's leading club sides each year. A total of 56 national federations are represented by CEV.
