

CEV SNOW VOLLEYBALL EUROPEAN TOUR 2022

PRACTICAL INFO

Important notes during the challenging times of COVID-19 Pandemic.

After two years, the global Covid-19 Pandemic still have a significant impact on all social and sport activities with measures and travel restrictions imposed by governments across Europe.

During the still ongoing Covid-19 Pandemic, CEV and our event promoters proved that by following the respective measures and protocols applied by CEV and the local and national authorities of the host country and region makes it possible to organise sport competitions again, by create a safe environment for all parties involved.

Health, safety and well-being of athletes, coaches, officials, staff and all persons involved is a top priority for CEV and the event Organiser!

To achieve this goal, a number of documents have been developed by CEV including:

- The CEV Competitions Hygiene Guidelines, with the aim to provide general recommendations and requirements that shall be considered in the event planning and applied in the event delivery.
- CEV Hygiene Guidelines - Snow Volleyball Specifications, with the aim to provide specific information relating to all CEV Snow Volleyball competitions and updated operational and competition protocols that need to be followed.

In close collaboration with the Organiser CEV has also developed the Event Specific Hygiene Guidelines with detailed review of the local measures, government regulations and travel restrictions of the host country. This is a dynamic document forming part of a tool for guidance and can be found on the event page of the CEV website.

Waiver document

A Waiver document is an appendix to this document which should be signed by all athletes, team delegation members, CEV officials, match officials, LOC, staff.

All participating athletes, team delegation members, CEV officials, match officials, LOC, staff, accredited media, international and local service providers, etc. adhere to fully comply and respect the protocols mentioned on the documents listed above. Failure to do so will be sanctioned with both financial and disciplinary sanctions, and may lead up to withdrawal of accreditation and the right to participate in the tournament.

Proof of COVID-19 fully vaccination or printed PCR test results:

As a pre-condition to be able to participate in a CEV Snow Volleyball European Tour 2022 event, all athletes, team delegation members and Officials must hold either a certificate of COVID-19 fully vaccination issued by the relevant competent authorities, or a COVID-19 PCR printed test result issued by an authorised health laboratories no earlier than three days before arrival.

CEV Snow Volleyball European Tour 2022 – Waiver document

Given the current COVID-19 Pandemic and the efforts made by the CEV and the Local Organiser, important information are included in Official Communication and Practical Info documents of the CEV Snow Volleyball European Tour 2022 tournament regarding the CEV Hygiene protocols plus the National and local regulations in place during the period of the event.

The CEV has reviewed its protocols with its internal experts, including its Medical Commission, so that they can be adjusted to the current conditions facing all of us as a result of the pandemic. Additional information are also available on the CEV's website <https://inside.cev.eu/covid19> with dedicated information and resources regarding the pandemic.

The CEV wants to ensure that all of its stakeholders have all of the necessary information related to COVID-19 and has taken steps to minimize the potential risk of COVID-19. However, the CEV notes that a risk of COVID-19 still exists despite all efforts.

With the information provided in the Official Communication, Practical Info documents, on CEV's websites and on the National Authorities websites, we would like to inform you of the possible risks involved in this CEV Snow Volleyball European Tour 2022 event that includes the travel to and from the event. You are participating in your own free will and you are aware of and assume the possible risks related to the COVID-19 by participating in this event.

To be specific, by acknowledging this document and continuing to participate in the event after receiving it as part of Practical Info document, you are aware and agree that:

1. While the local protocols and personal discipline may reduce this risk, the risk still does exist; accordingly, your participation includes possible exposure to and illness from infectious diseases, including but not limited to COVID-19; and,
2. You knowingly and freely assume all such risks, both known and unknown, even if arising from the event and assume full responsibility for his/her participation in this event; and,
3. You willingly agree to comply with the CEV Competitions Hygiene Guidelines, the CEV Hygiene Guidelines - Snow Volleyball Specifications, the Event Specifics Hygiene Guidelines the local protocols and requirements in place in and outside the venue. If, however, you observe any unusual or significant hazards during the player presence or participation, you may remove yourself from the event and participation; and,
4. You, hereby release and hold harmless the CEV and the event organisers and organizing National Federation, including officials, delegates, sponsors, staff, volunteers and other players with respect to any and all illness, disability or loss/damage to the player's person or property, whether arising from the negligence of the releases or otherwise, to the fullest extent permitted by law.
5. You/your National Federation will cover all medical & accommodation expenses if diagnosed with Covid-19 infection on site.

We kindly ask that you reflect on the above and take the time to seriously consider the implications of the above on you and your families before taking a decision as to whether you wish to participate.

If you agree with the above points, you are kindly required to duly sign this document. If you do not agree on the conditions and you are not signing the agreement, this will result in your immediate withdrawal from the event.

Thank you very much for your time, and we look forward to receiving your agreement of the above.
